

Information about donations for the 24 GOOD DEEDS Advent Calendar

1 Purpose of 24guteTaten e.V. (hereinafter: 24 GOOD DEEDS)

24 GOOD DEEDS is an organisation that collects donations for national and international projects. The donor will receive an Advent Calendar by post in the run up to Christmas for documentation purposes of his/her donation.

In the 24 GOOD DEEDS Advent Calendar there are various projects from the fields of environment, health, education and infrastructure and nutrition. Anyone who donates to 24 GOOD DEEDS thus supports the work of the individual relief organizations that are part of the calendar with concrete projects.

The donor receives the calendar for his or her donation, in order to understand where and for what the donation is being used.

1.1 Cancellation Policy / Right of cancellation

The donation can be cancelled within one month in text form (e.g. per letter, fax, e-mail) without stating reasons. The period begins at the earliest with receipt of this instruction. To maintain the cancellation period, the timely dispatch of the cancellation is sufficient.

The cancellation must be sent to: 24 good deeds e. V., Uedesheimer Str. 22, 40221 Dusseldorf

1.2 Cancellation consequences

In case of cancellation, we will refund your donations, whereby a processing fee of 10.50€ will be deducted from the donation. This amount covers the bank charges for the cancellation process (7.50€ fee from our house bank, 3€ fee from your bank).

1.3 Shipment of calendars and shipment costs

Calendars will be printed in September and October, in order to permit us in case of donation placement until the 20th of November, a delivery until 30th of November of the respective calendar year.

The shipment costs depend on the number of calendars shipped to one address. Shipment costs include stamp and processing costs for placing the shipment.

1.4 Tax deductibility

24 GOOD DEEDS is recognized as a non-profit organisation and can issue tax-approved donation certificates. An automatic donation receipt can be downloaded via link in the confirmation email. Requests to issue a receipt can also be sent to 24 GOOD DEEDS.

2. Conditions for SEPA / direct debit

For the collection of donations by direct debit (SEPA) through 24 GOOD DEEDS, the following regulations apply:

The collection of donations usually takes place within seven days after placing the donation on the website of 24 GOOD DEEDS (hereinafter "organisation"), at the latest by the end of the respective calendar year. The timing of the charge also depends on the processing time of the banks involved, in particular the bank of the donor.

By selecting the direct debit procedure, the donor agrees that the organisation uses the data provided by the donor (in particular name, first name, address, e-mail address, IBAN and BIC) for processing the direct debit procedure. The donor agrees that the organisation collects the amount donated by the donor plus the shipping costs for the Advent calendar from the specified account. In the event that the donor is not also the holder of the specified account, he/she must ensure that the respective account holder agrees to the direct debit and data processing by the organisation. In any case, the donor must ensure that the specified account is covered in an amount that allows the full collection of the specified donation amount plus shipping costs.

The deadline for advance information on direct debit is at least 2 (two) calendar days. The sponsoring organization will provide the donor with the preliminary information at the end of the donation process as a document in an external URL. The donor can download the PDF document from this external URL. The document contains the amount to be recovered, the mandate number, the creditor identification number, the expected date of the charge and the five first and last digits of the IBAN of the account from which the collection will take place.

The donor waives the request of the organisation for obtaining a written SEPA mandate. He expressly declares this waiver to his bank as well as to the bank of the organisation and agrees to a transfer of the disclaimer to all banks involved in direct debit. In the event that the donor is not the holder of the specified account, he/she must ensure that the respective account holder declares a corresponding waiver with the consent of the transfer. In this case, the donor must also forward the mandate reference number and the advance information on the direct debit to the account holder.

The ineffectiveness or impracticability of individual conditions above does not result in the ineffectiveness of the other conditions. The ineffective or unenforceable conditions shall be replaced by such conditions as close as possible to the ineffective or unenforceable conditions as economically as possible.

The law of the Federal Republic of Germany is applicable.
